

Dear High School Students and Parents,

Thank you for your continued excellence as we progress through this challenging situation. I appreciate your continued partnership and prayers. Please know that I continue to pray for you and your family, as well.

As we prepare for finals, we would like to think both prudently and inventively (cf. Proverbs 8:12) about optimizing this opportunity to finish well.

- 1) Teachers will choose either a final exam or a final project for each of their classes.
- 2) These finals can be...
 - a. Open book, or not.
 - b. Individual and/or group.
 - c. Synchronous and/or asynchronous.
- 3) The final will be calculated as 5% of the semester grade.
- 4) Final exams must be preceded by a review sheet—a week in advance, which will be success-oriented.

As always, I welcome your questions regarding all of this.

Have a wonderful week!

With God's blessings,

Greg Tackett
High School Principal
